GLOBAL JOURNAL
OF SCIENCE FRONTIER RESEARCH, USA

To,
Dr. Aprajita Srivastava,
Researcher,
United States.

Dear Dr. Aprajita Srivastava,

I came across your paper "Agriculture for Sustainable Development Goals" and felt that your work is distinctive for this research domain. This research may indeed prove to be significant to fellow researchers and scientists working in the same discipline.

Taking note of your research interests which matches with our journal domain, may I know more about your current research work? Like we can also develop a network of eminent researcher of your stream worldwide.

As your research work comes under the scope of our journals, I cordially invite you to send your future research articles/papers for publication to Global Journal of Science Frontier Research, DOI: 10.17406/GJSFR. It is an international, refereed, peer-reviewed, indexed and print journal. We are publishing various journals covering most of the disciplines of computer science, engineering, medical and management matters, natural science and human science since more than a decade for thousands of universities and authors from 153 countries.
